State Chair Report

1. Regional realignment has been proposed to help close talent and competition gap between regions
 - a. Proposed in response to the implementation of the Difficulty Bonus System into the Junior Program
2. Both realignment proposals have Wisconsin joining Region 5
 - a. Collect feedback on travel, ETC, and state proceeding implications
3. The concept of "sectionals" is an option for states that have significant travel hindrances from these proposed changes

- a. Could be an option to explore if Ohio and West Virginia are also a part of Region 5
4. Many questions regarding reconciling office positions such as JO Regional Technical Director
5. Coach Vote Recording

State Club's Votes/Reasons

- M&M (Represented by Brad LeCLair) - Against - The timeline for implementation is too soon and too rushed
- Infinite (Represented by Mitch Connor) - Against - The timeline for implementation is too soon and too rushed
- Precision (Represented by Josh Ames) - Against - Aligning with the consensus of the state's clubs
- Salto (Represented by Anthony Ingrelli) - Through e-mail - Against - Concerns about the viability of programs in lieu of Region 5 competition levels and social dynamics
- Jump Around (Represented by Matt Mannino) - In Favor of - Benefit from Region 5 coaching and organization will be a long term benefit to the coaches and gymnasts of Wisconsin
